Re: Fair Isaac Corp. v. Federal Insurance Co. et al.
16-cv-1054 (DTS)

Dear Judge Schultz:

This letter is in response to Fair Isaac Corporation's ("FICO") letter dated January 25, 2023, seeking leave to file an additional motion in limine. (Dkt. 1010.) FICO seeks permission to file a motion to exclude three exhibits—FICO's Complaint, Amended Complaint, and Second Amended Complaint ("Complaints")—and hold a separate hearing on the motion. Both are wholly unnecessary.

FICO is taking the position that good cause exists for an additional motion in limine and separate hearing on this topic because the documents "were never previously disclosed as potential exhibits." For the following four reasons, FICO's request should be denied.

As a preliminary matter, FICO's position is inconsistent with its own exhibit list in two dispositive ways. First, FICO fails to disclose that the same documents it now claim "are not proper exhibits" were included on FICO's own exhibit list. (See Attachment 1 (P-391, P-398, and P-399).) It was only after Federal notified FICO that its objections to the inclusion of the Complaints were inappropriate in light of FICO's inclusion of the very same exhibits on its exhibit list that FICO removed the exhibits from its list.¹ (See Attachment 2.) Second, while FICO takes the position that pleadings are not evidence, FICO simultaneously reserves the right to "rely on . . . any pleading . . . filed with the Court in this case" on its exhibit list. (Dkt. 1009 at 1.) In light of this history,

¹ This seems to be a standard page in FICO's playbook. While FICO has moved to preclude Federal from introducing evidence of the summary judgment order because "it is not evidence," (Dkt. 1010 at 2, n.1.) just as it does here for the Complaints, FICO fails to disclose that the Court's summary judgment order is identified on FICO's own exhibit list. (See Dkt. 1009, p. 25, P-669.) And despite arguing that Court orders are "not evidence," FICO includes other orders on its exhibit list as well. (See Dkt. 1009, p. 25, P-670.)

Honorable David T. Schultz

FICO's letter to the Court is particularly perplexing.

Second, FICO's position is meritless as an evidentiary matter. FICO's pleadings in the case, if introduced by Federal, are admissible as admissions by a party opponent. See, e.g., Chepilko v. Major, No. 06CV5491ARRLB, 2012 WL 13135142, at *4 (E.D.N.Y. Apr. 5, 2012) (citing United States v. McKeon, 738 F.2d 26, 31 (2d Cir. 1984)) ("Further, 'the law is quite clear that [superseded pleadings in civil litigation] constitute the admissions of a party-opponent and are admissible in the case in which they were originally filed as well as in any subsequent litigation involving that party.'"); see also Powell v. Boxley Materials Co., No. 7:19-CV-00189, 2021 WL 5759303, at *3 (W.D. Va. Dec. 3, 2021) (admitting complaints into evidence as party admissions). Thus, pleadings are appropriate exhibits and evidence.

Third, Defendants have a legitimate reason to include these documents on their exhibit list. Defendants have brought a breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing counterclaim against FICO. Part of the evidence that Defendants may present on this claim concerns the fact that FICO pursued a claim in this litigation that it knew to be meritless (i.e., that the software license agreement at issue contained a territorial restriction). Defendants included the complaints on their exhibit list as one way to show that FICO pursued this claim. Defendants, moreover, have limited their working exhibit list to less than 350 documents—a small fraction of the more than 1,100 documents on FICO's list, which includes patently inadmissible expert reports and myriad documents created for purposes of litigation. Defendants should be permitted at this stage of the case to retain the pleadings as potential evidence they may use to prove their counterclaim.

And finally, even if FICO had a legitimate objection to these documents—they do not—FICO may raise those objections in response to Defendants' exhibit list and/or when the information is introduced at trial. There is no need for additional motion practice, or taking up the Court's time in a separate hearing.

For these reasons, Federal respectfully requests that the Court deny leave for FICO to file an additional motion in limine and hold a separate hearing on these matters.

Sincerely,

FREDRIKSON & BYRON, P.A.

Subject: RE: FICO - Defendants' Supplemental Exhibit List
Date: Wednesday, January 25, 2023 11:43:45 AM

Hi Paige,

We don't understand FICO's objection to these documents. First of all, all of these documents are also included on FICO's exhibit list (Nos. P-0391, P-0398, and P-0399), so any purported objection on the ground that "they are not evidence" is inappropriate. And, in any event, the pleadings—or any portions thereof—are party admissions if offered by Defendants. Furthermore, the proper way to deal with this is in the objections; there's not a need for briefing on every admissibility issue raised by documents included on the parties' exhibit lists.

Subject: RE: FICO - Defendants' Supplemental Exhibit List

[EXTERNAL MESSAGE]

Counsel,

Defendants' supplemental exhibit list provided yesterday identified as new exhibits, among others, the Complaint, Amended Complaint, and the Second Amended Complaint. These pleadings are not proper exhibits; they are not evidence nor is there a witness to lay proper foundation to introduce them. Because Defendants did not identify these documents as exhibits by the required deadline of January 9, 2023, the deadline for FICO to file a motion in limine to exclude reference to these documents has passed. Accordingly, we intend to send a letter to Judge Schultz asking that he allow FICO to file an additional motion in limine seeking exclusion of these three new exhibits. If Defendants are willing to withdraw the Complaint, Amended Complaint, and the Second Amended Complaint from their exhibit list, please let us know by noon Central tomorrow. Otherwise, we will contact the Court.

Best,

Paige

Subject: FICO - Defendants' Supplemental Exhibit List

CAUTION - External.

Counsel,

Attached is Defendants' supplemental exhibit list. A link to a secure website from which you can download the exhibits themselves will follow from Sharlean Perez. As before, while the parties work through their objections and before filing the final exhibit list with the Court, we've assigned each document a temporary control number in lieu of an exhibit number (identified as TC-XXXX).

Defendants' inclusion of these documents on this supplemental exhibit list shall not be construed as a waiver of Defendants' objections to FICO's use of the same documents. Defendants reserve the right to supplement or amend this exhibit list including, but not limited to, in response to the Court's rulings on motions in limine, any stipulations among the parties, other developments in the case, to replace incomplete exhibits, or to provide better copies of exhibits. Defendants reserve the right to present demonstrative exhibits at trial that are not yet developed or included on this list, as well as use exhibits for impeachment or rebuttal that are not included on this list. Furthermore, Defendants do not intend to waive any objections regarding the admissibility of any evidence, including objections set forth in any forthcoming motions in limine.

Best,

O'Melveny
